On and after June 25th, Trains run as follows:

Table with columns for Westward and Eastward, listing stations like Harrisburg, York, and Lancaster with corresponding train times.

Pittsburg Express leaves Harrisburg at 11:00 P. M. Dunannon 1:30 (day), Newport 1:50 (day) and arrives at Philadelphia at 10 A. M.

Brief Items.

At the primary election in Newport we learn that while only 46 persons voted, nearly double that number of ballots were found in the hat.

Marsh Run is the name of a new post office located in Saville twp. D. McKerr is the post master. The office is located on the route from Newport to Ickesburg.

The truck of a freight car jumped the track at the Rockville bridge on Thursday, and threw the cars over on the other track, obstructing travel for several hours.

A few days ago Mr. Abram Deihl, of Centre twp., slipped while handling a heavy stick and fell in such a manner as to bring his elbow on a double bitted axe inflicting a very severe cut.

The remains of James H. Devor, Esq., a few days since, were taken from Tuscarora twp., to Shippensburg, and placed in the Public Graveyard, where the Devor family are buried.

On Wednesday a week, a son of David Adams, of Saville twp., had a bone in one of his legs fractured while wrestling at school. Teachers should prohibit sport of this kind.

The buggy found on the South Mountain, near Waynesboro, has been claimed by Jacob Knissley, of Mount Joy, Lancaster county, from whom it was stolen on the 2nd of January.

On Thursday night, a son of Abram Kintner had an ankle sprained and was otherwise hurt by wrestling at spelling school, at Huston's school house in Carroll township.

There will be a Murphy Temperance meeting in the Presbyterian Church on next Saturday evening. A speaker from Harrisburg will be present and address the meeting.

A few weeks ago Messrs. Carl & Stouffer, of Harrisburg, purchased a pen of eighteen superior fat hogs, of the Chester White breed, from Landlord Ringwalt, of the American House, Carlisle, that averaged 3964 pounds each.

A very large amount of pork seems to be shipped from this county this season, and the shipments keep up much later than is usual. The low price early in the season probably accounts for the delay in killing, but no gain has been made by waiting.

Mr. Jacob Summers dropped dead on Monday, just at the moment he was entering the store of D. G. Confer, near Marklesburg, Huntingdon county. Up to the moment of his death, Mr. Summers was in his usual health, and was on business at the time. He was about 80 years old.

Presbyterian Church—Preaching next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M. Sunday school at 2:45 P. M., Prayer meeting on Wednesday at 7 o'clock P. M., and singing at 5:45 P. M., on Saturday.

Frozen to Death.—Mr. Daniel Brown, a resident of York county, living near the Red Run church, was found dead on Saturday morning, 2nd inst., in a field on the farm of David Deardorn, close by. It appears that as a Mrs. Wallace and her daughter were passing the field they observed the body of a man partly covered with snow, and upon reaching it, found it to be that of Mr. Brown. He had left his home on Friday morning to visit his son living a couple of miles distant, and it was thought by the family that he had remained there over night. He was about 60 years of age.—Comet.

Large Barn Burned.—On Wednesday morning the large barn of David Brown 3 miles from East Berlin, on the Conewago, in Adams county, was totally destroyed by fire. There was in the barn 30 head of fat cattle, 5 of which were burned to death and the sixth so badly burned, that it was killed, a cow and calf were also burned. There was also 500 bushels of threshed, and 300 bushels of unthreshed wheat, hay, straw, &c., an out-building adjoining was also destroyed. The horses had fortunately been taken out, ready to be hitched, and the family were at breakfast when the fire broke out. Mr. Brown, in his efforts to save the cattle, was nearly suffocated and fell over several times, when his son came to his rescue, and assisted him. The building had been insured only a week ago in the Paradise company. The fire was no doubt the work of incendiaries. About four weeks ago another barn belonging to Mr. Brown was burned.

Some time during last fall or summer, Mr. Brown had a quantity of flour stolen from his mill, and he had employed detectives to ferret out the guilty parties, and it is supposed that they took this means to be revenged.—York Democrat of the 12th inst.

An Unwelcome Visitor.—About 2 o'clock on the morning of the 11th Mr. David Newcomer, clerk in charge of Diehl & Co.'s warehouse at Richmond Furnace was awakened by loud raps at the door of the building for admittance. On answering the request, the knocker informed him that he had been thrown off his horse and wished to remain there until morning. Mr. Newcomer opened the door and admitted the stranger who immediately asked for a drink of water, which was given him. As he was returning the empty glass the ruffian, as his true character now appeared, suddenly produced a sand bag, and struck a blow at Mr. N., which he fortunately warded off receiving it on his arm. Mr. Newcomer drew a revolver and fired two shots at the retreating figure, who thus foiled at the outset had fled, without however as far as is known hitting him. Mr. N. says the man was evidently in disguise. It was doubtless his intention after disposing of his victim to make a raid on the property for valuables, which but for the coolness and bravery of Mr. Newcomer, he might have accomplished.—Franklin Repository.

Cumberland County.—We copy the following from the Cumberland county papers of last week:

Last Monday night the store of Mr. Geo. W. Buttorf, dry goods merchant, in Mechanicsburg, was broken into and robbed of between four and five hundred dollars worth of fine goods, such as silks, kid gloves, crepe veils, Thibet shawls, sewing silk, ribbons, silk ties and handkerchiefs—leaving all other goods unmolested. The thieves effected an entrance by boring numerous auger holes in a panel of the outside door and thus forcing out a piece of panel and breaking the lock on the door. They left no trace behind, and made good their escape.

A stable belonging to Chas. Cramer, at Big Spring, was burned at an early hour on Sunday morning last. It was probably the work of an incendiary, as a horse which a young man of the family had placed in the stable an hour before the fire was found tied to a fence away from the burning stable. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

On Tuesday morning, Carr Bishop, of Boiling Springs, aged 12 years, had the right knee badly lacerated by falling from the arms of a threshing machine whilst in motion into the machine. The accident occurred at the residence of Mr. Bishop, in South Middleton. Drs. Krise and Dale were called in and bandaged the little fellow's injuries.

Juniata County.—We copy the following from the Juniata county papers of last week.

D. G. Alter, of Port Royal, sports a cane, not because he is proud, but because a railroad the fell on his foot.

There is a willow tree at Moist's spring, near this town, that is 22 feet in circumference.

James Williams, residing in Fermanagh township, slipped on ice on the road, fell and broke a thigh. Dr. Elder rendered the surgical aid and medical attention required in the case.—Sentinel.

On Tuesday evening a week, about ten o'clock, as Luther Kepner was passing a strip of wood, on horseback, a short distance on this side of his father's residence in Milford township, he was fired on by some person in the wood. The bullet from the discharged piece of fire-arms, passed through Luther's hat above his head. The passage of the bullet two inches lower would have produced death. The crack of the weapon frightened the horse into a run, and thus Kepner got away from other shots if others were intended for him.

On Friday of last week, Mr. Howard Woodmansee, of this place, while engaged in making a blast in the foundry in which he is employed had both his eyes badly burned. Mr. W. was engaged in stopping up the mouth of the cupola after he had drawn a ladleful of melted metal, when by some cause or another a sheet of the red-hot liquid burst out, striking him across the eye, very seriously though not fatally injuring those valuable organs.

His Honor, Judge Junkin, and his merry jesters, the lawyers, had a full week of it in this place last week. Court opened at 11 o'clock Monday morning and did not adjourn until 12 o'clock Saturday night, with evening sessions nearly every evening during the week. The Mothersbaugh case was the knotty question that bothered them all during the last three days of the session, and out of it, as decided by the jury, is likely to grow a number of other legal contests.

Ballou's Monthly Magazine for March, 1878.

There are many articles in the March number of Ballou's Magazine which should be examined by the general reader, and all who are fond of good stories, nice adventures, fine illustrations, and excellent poetry. The Magazine is not a high-priced one, but it does have the most interesting table of contents of any serial published in this country; and the editors are particular that not a dull article shall appear in its pages. This gives it popularity and readers, and Ballou's really deserves all the success that it has attained, as every one can find something in it that will strike his or her fancy.
